Catholic Teaching on Family and Married Life

Family is primary from the days of the Apostles and St. Paul

“The early Christians understood that they were the offspring of a new worldwide family of God...Christians staked their lives on the belief that God is our Father...they put God first. They believed the Church is our mother. They believed their bishops and priests were their spiritual fathers and that through the sacraments they were made children of God, or ‘partakers of the divine nature,’ as Peter said.”

Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, OFM Cap.

A love letter from Hilarion to his pregnant wife Alis (circa 1 BC)

“Know that I am still in Alexandria. And do not worry if they all come back and I remain in Alexandria. I ask and beg you to take good care of our baby son, and as soon as I receive payment I shall send it up to you. If you are delivered of a child [before I come home], if it is a boy keep it, if a girl discard it. You have sent me word, “Don’t forget me.” How can I forget you. I beg you not to worry.”

Infanticide

- Greco/Romans sanctioned and encouraged infanticide
- Infants were left exposed to the elements at day old – if someone else wanted them they could have them
- Girls were most likely the victims – “more than one daughter was practically never reared”
- Delphi inscriptions of over 600 families – only 6 raised more than one daughter
- Discovery at the dig at Ashkelon

Abortion, contraception and adultery

Then	Now
Abortion was very common	Abortion is very common
A wide range of contraceptives were available, both physical and chemical	A wide range of contraceptives are available, both physical and chemical
Men could legally compel any woman in his household (wife, daughter, slave) to have an abortion without her consent.	Our culture compels women to have abortions rather than looking at alternatives.
Adultery was common for men – strictly forbidden for women	Adultery is common for men and women.
Low birth rate throughout the pagan world	Low birth rate throughout the western world

Christians reject abortion, infanticide and contraception

- Christians “had to change” and reject the culture around them
- Why?

Pope John Paul II on Family

God in His deepest mystery [the Trinity] is not a solitude, but a family, since He has in Himself fatherhood, sonship, and the essence of the family, which is love.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
